

THE BLAKE SOCIETY sets out to honour and celebrate William Blake (1757-1827), poet, artist & visionary, and gathers an important community of over 200 members from around the world.

Your subscription will help the Society to provide a programme of events and talks to celebrate Blake and the diverse forms of creativity his work inspires, as well as giving exclusive or reduced-price entry to our events and publications.

Our present ambitions include marking the exact location of Blake's grave in Bunhill Fields and opening his two surviving homes. Infinite donations are also welcome.
